

TRICS 2024 Award Criteria

Tulane National Primate Research Center

All contestants for the TNPRC prize must be a Graduate or Post-doctoral student at the TNPRC.

Posters will be judged on the following criteria:

- clarity of presentation,
- scientific content/originality,
- visual appeal and design,
- organization and structure,
- and effectiveness of communication.

Judges may also assess the presenter's ability to answer questions and engage with the audience.

There will be two prizes of $500 awarded.
